Dance

Travel Guide

May, 1995

Welcome to the Square Dance Travel Guide, 1995 Edition!

This is my first version of the guide, and I have some big shoes (or is it big hair?) to fill. I am immensely grateful to Freeman Stamper for his help and suggestions during the preparation of this guide. I could never have put this together without his 1994 version as a starting point.

The effective date of this guide is September 1, 1995. This information is constantly changing, so always confirm dance schedules before any trip. While I have tried to be as thorough and accurate as possible, I apologize for the inevitable mistakes that appear. Watch for a version of this guide to appear soon on the Internet!

This version of the travel guide contains information on clubs that welcome gay and lesbian square dancers, but that are not members of the IAGSDC. If you know of other such clubs, please send me information on them so that I can include them in future guides.

Updating your club's information

You can help keep the guide up-to-date by sending all updates to

Paul Asente

Don't wait until next year! I will be updating the Internet version of the guide whenever I receive new information, so if you want people to have access to the latest club information keep me informed.

Country-Western Dancing

This guide is by no means a definitive resource for country-western dancing. While I believe the information to be correct, it is far from complete.

And to conclude

I can think of no better way to end my first edition of the travel guide than with the following words of wisdom from Freeman's last edition:

Remember To:

Practice random acts of kindness

Be a giver, not a taker

Hug your partner & your corner, and really mean you care

Love one another

Search for a cooperative & forgiving spirit in your square dancing

Square Dancing on the Internet

There are a number of Internet resources for square dancers. Here are some of them:

- The lgcwsd mailing list is a mailing list for the discussion of Lesbian and Gay Country Western and Square Dancing. You can join the mailing list by sending a message to `majordomo@dmshome.youngstown.oh.us` (all one line) with the text `subscribe lgcwsd` in the body of the message.
- If you're interested in calling, or in choreography, or just in hearing what callers have to say, you can subscribe to the square-dance caller's mailing list. This is not a gay and lesbian list. Send a message to `majordomo@dmshome.youngstown.oh.us` (still all one line) with the text `subscribe sd-callers` in the body of the message.
- For those with access to a web browser, the IAGSDC web page can be found at <http://hawg.Stanford.EDU:80/~sgreen/IAGSDC/> (and again, all one line). From here you can get to web pages for many individual clubs. Add one for your club!
- Want lots of general square dancing information? Call lists, definitions, many interesting articles, Bugs Bunny's version of square dance calling, and the world's longest square dance call? Look on Rob French's square dance page, at <http://suif.stanford.edu/~rfrench/wsd/wsd.html> (surprise! all one line)
